Attention all civilians and farmers! The recent c_____sion between The Iron Man and the space bat-angel-dragon has thankfully ended in victory for The Iron Man. The c_____sion caused by this strange i_____sion of our plant has finally come to an end. The happy news will be broadcast on the t_____sion. A d_____sion has been made to make The Iron Man the hero of the world!

Or play the game from last week with this week's words:

You will need to make your flashcards.

- If you have someone to play with, shuffle up your cards and play snap.
- Pairs: divide the cards between you. One player puts down a card and the other gets to keep the pair if they have its matching meaning /spelling.
- Definitions: Your partner reads you a definition, you have to identify and spell the word. For a bonus point, use the word correctly in a sentence.

If you don't have a partner, play Pelmanism. Shuffle your cards, place them all face down in a grid pattern. Turn one card over, can you find its partner? If it matches, remove the pair from the grid. If it doesn't, turn them both back over. Repeat until you have found all the pairs.

Wednesday:

Make up a tune or a rap to spell each word using the root word spelling to help you:

Explode explosion

Implode implosion

Thursday

comrade	optics	comets
lidar	videotape	series
tremendous	glasses	orbit
dangerous	mountain	enormous

Remember these? How many can you correctly use in your story?

Friday

The final test

Hold a Spelling Bee or ask someone else to test you. Explain to someone else the rules you have learned this week. If you are feeling confident, repeat the word, spell it forwards, spell it backwards and then use it in a sentence.

If there is no-one to test you today, write out the spellings in your book and use the look, cover, write, check method to see if you are getting them right.
