This week's word list: Words with the /ei/ sound spelt ei, eigh, or ey and words with sc

Monday: Look, cover, write, check carefully and in your best, joined handwriting

_science, scene, discipline, fascinate (d, ing), crescent vein, weigh, eight, neighbour, they, obey

Can you add any more words to the lists?

Tuesday: Complete the missing words:

It was a lovely _____. The boy had been studying _____ since he was little and was _____ by the stars in the sky. He and his _____ lay on the ground, staring up at the _____ moon. _____ were waiting to see a shooting star. And lay were still and silent. The boy's grandfather had told them that star gazing was a great discipline and ___ had to _____ the rules if _____ were going to see such a wondrous sight.

Or play the game from last week with this week's words:

You will need to make your flashcards.

- If you have someone to play with, shuffle up your cards and play snap.
- Pairs: divide the cards between you. One player puts down a card and the other gets to keep the pair if they have its matching meaning /spelling.
- Definitions: Your partner reads you a definition, you have to identify and spell the word. For a bonus point, use the word correctly in a sentence.

If you don't have a partner, play Pelmanism. Shuffle your cards, place them all face down in a grid pattern. Turn one card over, can you find its partner? If it matches, remove the pair from the grid. If it doesn't, turn them both back over. Repeat until you

Wednesday:

Make up a tune or a rap to spell each word.

Try it forwards and backwards.

Make up a game to play – give the meaning and one of the letters for someone else to guess the word. They can have a point if they can then spell it. Eg. This word means words double four and the fourth letter is h?

Thursday:

caught centre century certain circle complete consider continue decide

Remember these? How many can you correctly spell now?

Friday

The final test

Hold a Spelling Bee or ask someone else to test you. Explain to someone else the rules you have learned this week. If you are feeling confident, repeat the word, spell it forwards, spell it backwards and then use it in a sentence.

If there is no-one to test you today, write out the spellings in your book and use the look, cover, write, check method to see if you are getting them right.
