Hello dreamers,

Thanks to that exquisitely curious nature of yours – you’ve found the Puffin Festival of Big Dreams event kit. The next few pages are filled with ideas to help you join in at home.

Did you know that this year is also Puffin’s biggest birthday yet? The first Puffin book was published in 1940 which means Puffin is 80. 2020 isn’t what any of us were expecting but every day amazing people just like you are finding new and creative ways to share stories. It just goes to show that a little imagination can go a looooooong way.

We hope you’ll enjoy the festival and feel inspired to keep dreaming.

What to expect

During the festival, tune in twice a day to watch authors and illustrators - and then try out the creative challenges they’re setting. There’ll be animalastic quizzes, build-your-own-adventure workshops, amazing alphabet games and a guest appearance from a real Puffin. You can watch on Puffin’s Facebook and YouTube channels @PuffinBooks.

Create a collage of dreams using #PuffinDreamer

For a chance to see your dreams in the festival ask a grown-up to share them using the hashtag #PuffinDreamer. Throughout the week, Nick Sharratt, the Illustrator in Residence will be drawing three a day. All dreams will be looked after with the greatest of care.

Keep reading and dreaming

Love Puffin

Preparation check list

- Click Going on the Facebook event so we know you’re coming
- Keep sharing your dreams, photos, books and stories using #PuffinDreamer
- Find out your Dreamer name (pg 9) and how tall you are (pg 14)
- Decorate your house (pg 11-13) – and yourself (pg 10)

During the festival

- Fill in the Dream Rainbow each day (pg 16)
- Have pens and paper ready so you can join in
- Look out for extra activities over the LIVE weekend

Afterwards

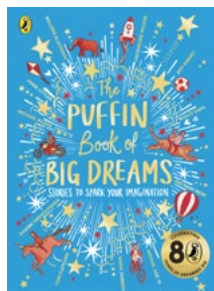

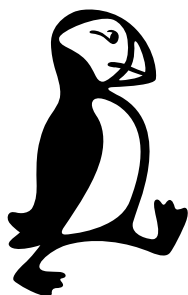

- Find out how many Puffins you’ve read (pg 19)
- Create a Puffin puppet show inspired by your favourite story
- See if your local library is offering digital lending so you can read even more!
- Enter the Big Dreams on Screen competition (pg 21-22)
- Keep on dreaming

PUFFIN FESTIVAL OF BIG DREAMS READING LIST

Find out more about the books in the festival. These ages are just a guide for readers however all festival events will be suitable for children aged 7 and up (and anyone who's ever got lost in conversation with a talking rabbit).

The Puffin Book of Big Dreams

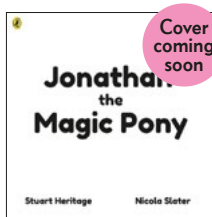

Written and illustrated by over 100 Puffin authors and illustrators

If you love: Stories that spark your imagination.

The story: A very special book for Puffin's biggest birthday yet. Its bursting with new poems, stories and illustrations (as well as a few well-loved classics).

A magical hardback with black and white illustrations. Look carefully and you might catch a burst of yellow and a cheeky Puffin beneath the blue jacket. You can read it from the 3 September.

Picture books for little dreamers

Jonathan the Magic Pony

Written by Stuart Heritage and illustrated by Nicola Slater

If you love: Horses and hocus pocus.

The story: Jonathan the Magic Pony is a brilliant magician. With one wave of his magic wand he can make anything disappear. Boom! And because he's such a brilliant magician, with one more wave he can make things come back too. It's foolproof. Failsafe. Always works. Or does it? The brightest, most magical picture book with amazing illustrations.

Billy and the Dragon

Written and illustrated by Nadia Shireen

If you love: Fearless heroines, fire-breathing dragons and... Fatcat!

The story: Billy goes on a brave adventure after her loyal sidekick Fatcat is kidnapped at a fancy-dress party!

How to be a Lion

Written and illustrated by Ed Vere

If you love: Quietly dreaming, pondering and being true to yourself.

The story: Leonard the Lion is a gentle soul who befriends Marianne, a duck. Lions are supposed to chomp ducks and Leonard must decide whether to follow the herd or be true to himself.

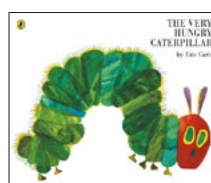

Clean Up!

Written by Nathan Bryon and illustrated by Dapo Adeola

If you love: Exciting adventures, tropical animals and finding out how little people can make a big change.

The story: Join lovable, passionate Rocket as she sets off on a mission to save a Caribbean island from plastic pollution. You might recognise Rocket from her picture book debut Look Up!

The Very Hungry Caterpillar

Written and illustrated by Eric Carle

If you love: Salivating over pictures of food.

The story: A little caterpillar with a big appetite munches through the days of the week. A classic board book is perfect for little hands, it's got chunky pages and brightly coloured pictures of fruit, vegetables and cake!

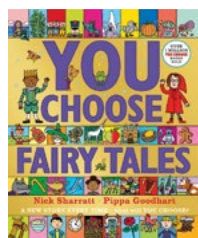

The Puffin Keeper

Written by Michael Morpurgo and illustrated by Benji Davies

If you love: Stories of friendship and animals.

The story: It was Benjamin Postlethwaite's job all his long life to make sure the light shone brightly high up in the lighthouse on Puffin Island. This is a story of a life-changing friendship, a lost puffin, and a lonely artist. It's the story of an entire lifetime, and how one event can change a life forever. This truly beautiful tale with words and colourful pictures, will be enchanting readers when it comes out into bookshops in November.

You Choose Fairy Tales

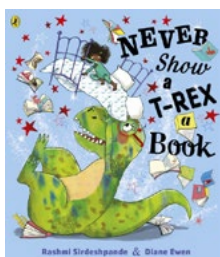

Written by Pippa Goodhart and illustrated by Nick Sharratt

If you love: Making up stories (and circling things in the Argos catalogue).

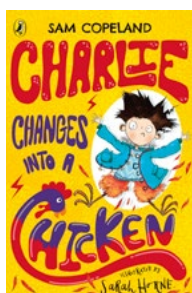

The story: Make up your very own fairy tale adventure where YOU CHOOSE what happens next! Which fairy tale hero would you like to be today? Where will you go on your fairy tale quest? And what fairy tale baddie would you least like to meet? Every page is packed with lots of illustrations – you'll see something different every time you look.

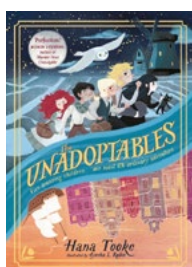

Books for dreamers aged 7+

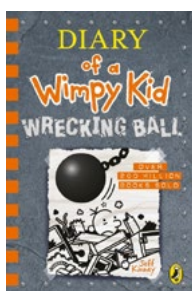

Never Show a T-Rex a Book!
Written by Rashmi Sirdeshpande and illustrated by Diane Ewen
If you love: Books about books and dinosaurs!
The story: What would happen if you showed a T-Rex a book? Well, she wouldn't know what to do with it... would she? A madcap, super silly adventure story rooted in the transformative power of books. Coming out in August.

Charlie Changes into a Chicken
Written by Sam Copeland and illustrated by Sarah Horne
If you love: Roald Dahl and snorting while you laugh.
The story: Charlie McGuffin has got a special power – he can turn into animals. The only problem is he never knows when it's going to happen! A brilliant chapter book filled with lots of black and white animal illustrations – including a beastly spider.

The Unadoptables
Written by Hana Tooke and illustrated by Ayesha L. Rubio
If you love: Lemony Snicket.
The story: Join five amazing children – Lotta, Egg, Fenna, Sem and Milou as they flee the Little Tulip Orphanage in Amsterdam and embark on a unforgettable journey. An adventure packed with puppets and pirate ships, clock-makers and cruel villains.

Diary of a Wimpy Kid: Wrecking Ball
Written and illustrated by Jeff Kinney
If you love: Laugh-out-loud stories with lots of pictures.
The story: 50% words, 50% cartoons, 100% hilarious! Big changes are in store for Greg Heffley and his family. They are making home improvements! But with unwelcome critters, toxic mould and the walls coming down, soon Greg discovers renovations aren't all they are cracked up to be.

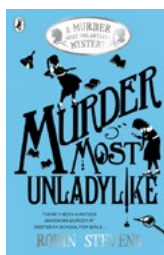

Into the Spotlight
Written by Carrie Hope Fletcher
If you love: Noel Streatfield's much-loved classic Ballet Shoes and Britain's Got Talent.
The story: The Pebble sisters spend their summer holidays backstage with an extraordinary cast of theatre acts - Dante the miraculous magician, Petunia the storyteller and seventy-year-old contortionists - the Fortune Sisters! One day, as they are exploring the many nooks and crannies of the theatre, they stumble upon something they were never meant to find...

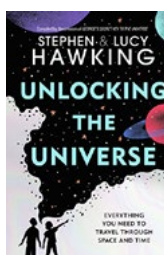

Books for dreamers aged 9+

Frostheart
Written and Illustrated by Jamie Littler
If you love: Nevermoor, Frozen and How to Train Your Dragon!
The story: A magical and hilarious adventure, set against the backdrop of an icy, fantastical world. There are epic black and white illustrations on every page.

Murder Most Unladylike
Written by Robin Stevens
If you love: Solving mysteries and school stories.
The story: At Deepdean School for Girls, best friends and detectives Daisy Wells and Hazel Wells work together to solve the mystery surrounding the murder of their science teacher, before the killer strikes again!

Unlocking the Universe
Written by Lucy and Stephen Hawking
If you love: Dreaming about travelling to outer space.
The story: In their series of novels, George's Secret Key to the Universe, Lucy and Stephen Hawking imagined what great adventures one boy might have if he travelled through space. Filled with beautiful illustrations and fascinating facts and figures.

You Must Be Layla
Written by Yassmin Abdel-Magied
If you love: Gummy worms, robots and characters that ALWAYS speak their mind (even if it gets them into trouble...!)
The story: Layla's determined to prove that she does deserve her scholarship by making new friends and setting her sights on inventing something that could win the big robotics competition. Expect that 'I-can-do-anything' feeling after reading.

Katy
Written by Jacqueline Wilson and illustrated by Nick Sharratt
If you love: Hetty Feather, Tracy Beaker and the brilliant CBBC series!
The story: Katy Carr is a lively, daredevil oldest sister in a big family. She loves messing around outdoors, climbing on the garage roof, or up a tree, cycling, skateboarding, swinging... But her life changes in dramatic and unexpected ways after a serious accident. An irresistible modern retelling of a much loved classic.

DRAW YOUR BIG DREAM!

Maybe your big dream is to travel the world on a unicorn? Or eat the world's largest pizza whilst skateboarding? Ask a grown-up to share your big dream in one sentence using the hashtag #PuffinDreamer.

Every day the festival Illustrator in Residence Nick Sharratt will draw three big dreams - tune in at 3:30 to find out which ones have been chosen. In the meantime, draw your own dream in the cloud and send them to be added to the collage.

Need some inspiration? Try writing a dream using one of the titles from the stories in the Puffin Book of Big Dreams. Cut out the squares, place them in your dream jar and pick one out at random. Then find a quiet place and let your imagination wander . . .

FUN PUFFIN FACT

Stig is a caveman who lives in the dump near Barney's house. His home is made with what he finds that others have thrown away. Could you create a reading den using just things you can find in your house? You could use old boxes and bedsheets to create a cosy corner.

HEIGHT CHART

The BFG is 24 foot (731.52cms) – but that’s puddlenuts in Giant Country... how tall are you? Use a ruler or tape measure to find out how tall you are compared to these famous characters and add it to this picture. If you’re thinking of sticking this to a wall – ask a parent first!

INTO

ON SCREEN

COMPETITION!

DRAW A STORYBOARD OF YOUR BIG DREAM!

The winning entry will be turned into a real film and screened in your local cinema during the Into Film Festival in November, plus you'll win 80 Puffin books for your school! Get your entry form and storyboard template at IntoFilm.org/DreamCompetition

STEP
1

Decide your big dream – it could be based on your own personal goals, be totally extraordinary or even be inspired by your favourite Puffin book.

2

Draw your dream as a storyboard. A storyboard is like a comic strip that tells the director what's happening in your film. You could use the boxes to draw the beginning, middle and end of your film. Think about where your dream is taking place and what might happen. You don't have to use all the boxes – the judges will be looking for ideas with lots of imagination!

STEP
3

Send in your entry to puffinschools@penguinrandomhouse.co.uk with Big Dream in the subject line or post to Big Dreams on Screen, Penguin Random House Children's, 80 Strand, London, WC2R 0RL. Competition closes 3 August.
