Ahmed got the highest mark in the class for his science project, which he's really pleased about! But he's worried that if he tells his friends, they'll make fun of him and call him a nerd. So he's keeping him mark secret.

What could you say to help Ahmed feel proud of himself?

"You should feel proud because..."

"Don't worry about..."

Amelia's older sister is really good at maths, and her mum expects
Amelia to be good at it too.
Today, she got 8/10 on her maths test and she's worried her mum will be disappointed because she didn't get 10/10, like her sister.

What could you say to help Amelia feel proud of herself?

"That's really cool! You should feel..."

"You shouldn't compare..."

Jack has joined a dance class and he's really enjoying it! But his brother said that dancing is for girls and he should play football instead. Now he's embarrassed and doesn't know if he should continue dancing.

What could you say to help Jack feel proud of himself again?

"You clearly enjoy dancing so..."

"Don't worry about..."

Maya was really proud of her new braids that her mum did for her!

She thinks they look nice but some girls in the class said they looked like worms, so now she's embarrassed and thinks maybe she should get rid of them.

What could you say to help Maya feel proud of herself again?

"Don't listen to..."

"if you like them, then..."

Joel has always been very proud of both his dads, but when some of his class met them, they said it was strange that he didn't have a mum. Some of them said that their parents don't want them to hang out with Joel anymore. This made Joel feel sad.

What could you say to help Joel feel proud of him and his family?

"You should be proud of..."

"You should tell..."

Reflect (3-5 mins)

Have you ever experienced a time where something or someone stopped you feeling proud of your differences? Tell your partner what happened.

"I've never..."

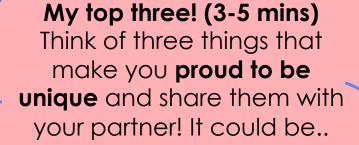

Proud to be me!

Something you've achieved!

Something you're good at!

Something that's different from everybody else!

Something else that you think makes you great!

Do we appreciate uniqueness?

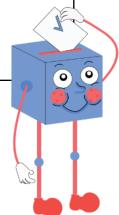

Yes	No
 I appreciate that I'm different from everyone else! I appreciate that other people are different to me and how that makes them unique! I think the world would be very boring is everyone was the same. 	 Sometimes people say things that make other people feel bad about being different. I don't really like being different. I think I still need to work on appreciating other people's uniqueness.
