English- Day 5

LO: I can identify, understand and use instructions.

It is your first day in your new job! You are a Tear Thief! Your job is to collect the tears of children.

But first you have to pass your training!

Did you know that the light of the moon is made from tears of laughter, boredom and anger? The most beautiful part of the moon's shimmering light comes from tears of pure sadness.

Firstly, we need to think of the equipment you are going to need to collect the tears, store them and where they will finally be stored.

Equipment list:

English- Day 5

LO: I can identify, understand and use instructions.

Now you have your equipment you're ready to start your new job.

Here are a set of instructions you will need to follow to find out how you can make the moon glimmer but someone has jumbled them up.

Please can you place them in the right order.

When the sack is full, use the invisible ladder to climb up to the moon. Don't look down!

Sneakily enter the house of a crying child.
Place the tears into the sack.
Repeat.

Make sure you have a silvery, waterproof sack.

Place on your feet a pair of silent, silk slippers. You will need these to creep around houses.

Tiptoe up to the child and carefully collect their tears.

English- Day 5

LO: I can identify, understand and use instructions.

Once you have put the instructions in the correct order lets use our time connectives and adverb openers to complete the sentences.
