Feedback: “Will Brexit affect you?”

“I am grateful to you for sharing your views with us here in DfE – it’s great to hear from young people directly about policy issues like this, especially on something like EU Exit where the practical considerations of the UK’s departure from the EU are likely to be felt for many years to come.

Please do keep talking about these difficult topics – the ability to consider complicated subjects like this when there are multiple perspectives and opinions are skills that are so important in life. They’re particularly important for civil servants like me – so an extra big thank you and well done as I know personally how tricky it can be to reach a conclusion when considering different options!”

Feedback: “Will Brexit affect you?”

“Thank you very much for your votes. The effects of Brexit will take time to be felt but it represents a big change in our relationship with our nearest neighbours and friends.”

Is Donald Trump guilty of encouraging violence at the Capitol?

Please Note:

If you would like to use one of our Lockdown Assemblies in conjunction with this week's topic, we would recommend the session on online behaviour.

Starter: A common theme...

Guess! (1-2 mins)

Take a look at all of these social media platforms that have been in the news recently. Do you know what (or who!) they all had in common?

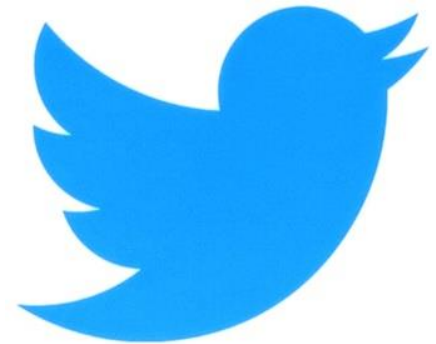

Instagram

Facebook

YouTube

Twitter

All of these platforms have banned Donald Trump from using them at the moment.

Challenge:
Do you know why?

Donald Trump's presidency ended last week on 20th January, and Joe Biden became the new President of the United States of America (USA).

Watch (1-2 mins)

Click the image to find out more about Joe Biden!

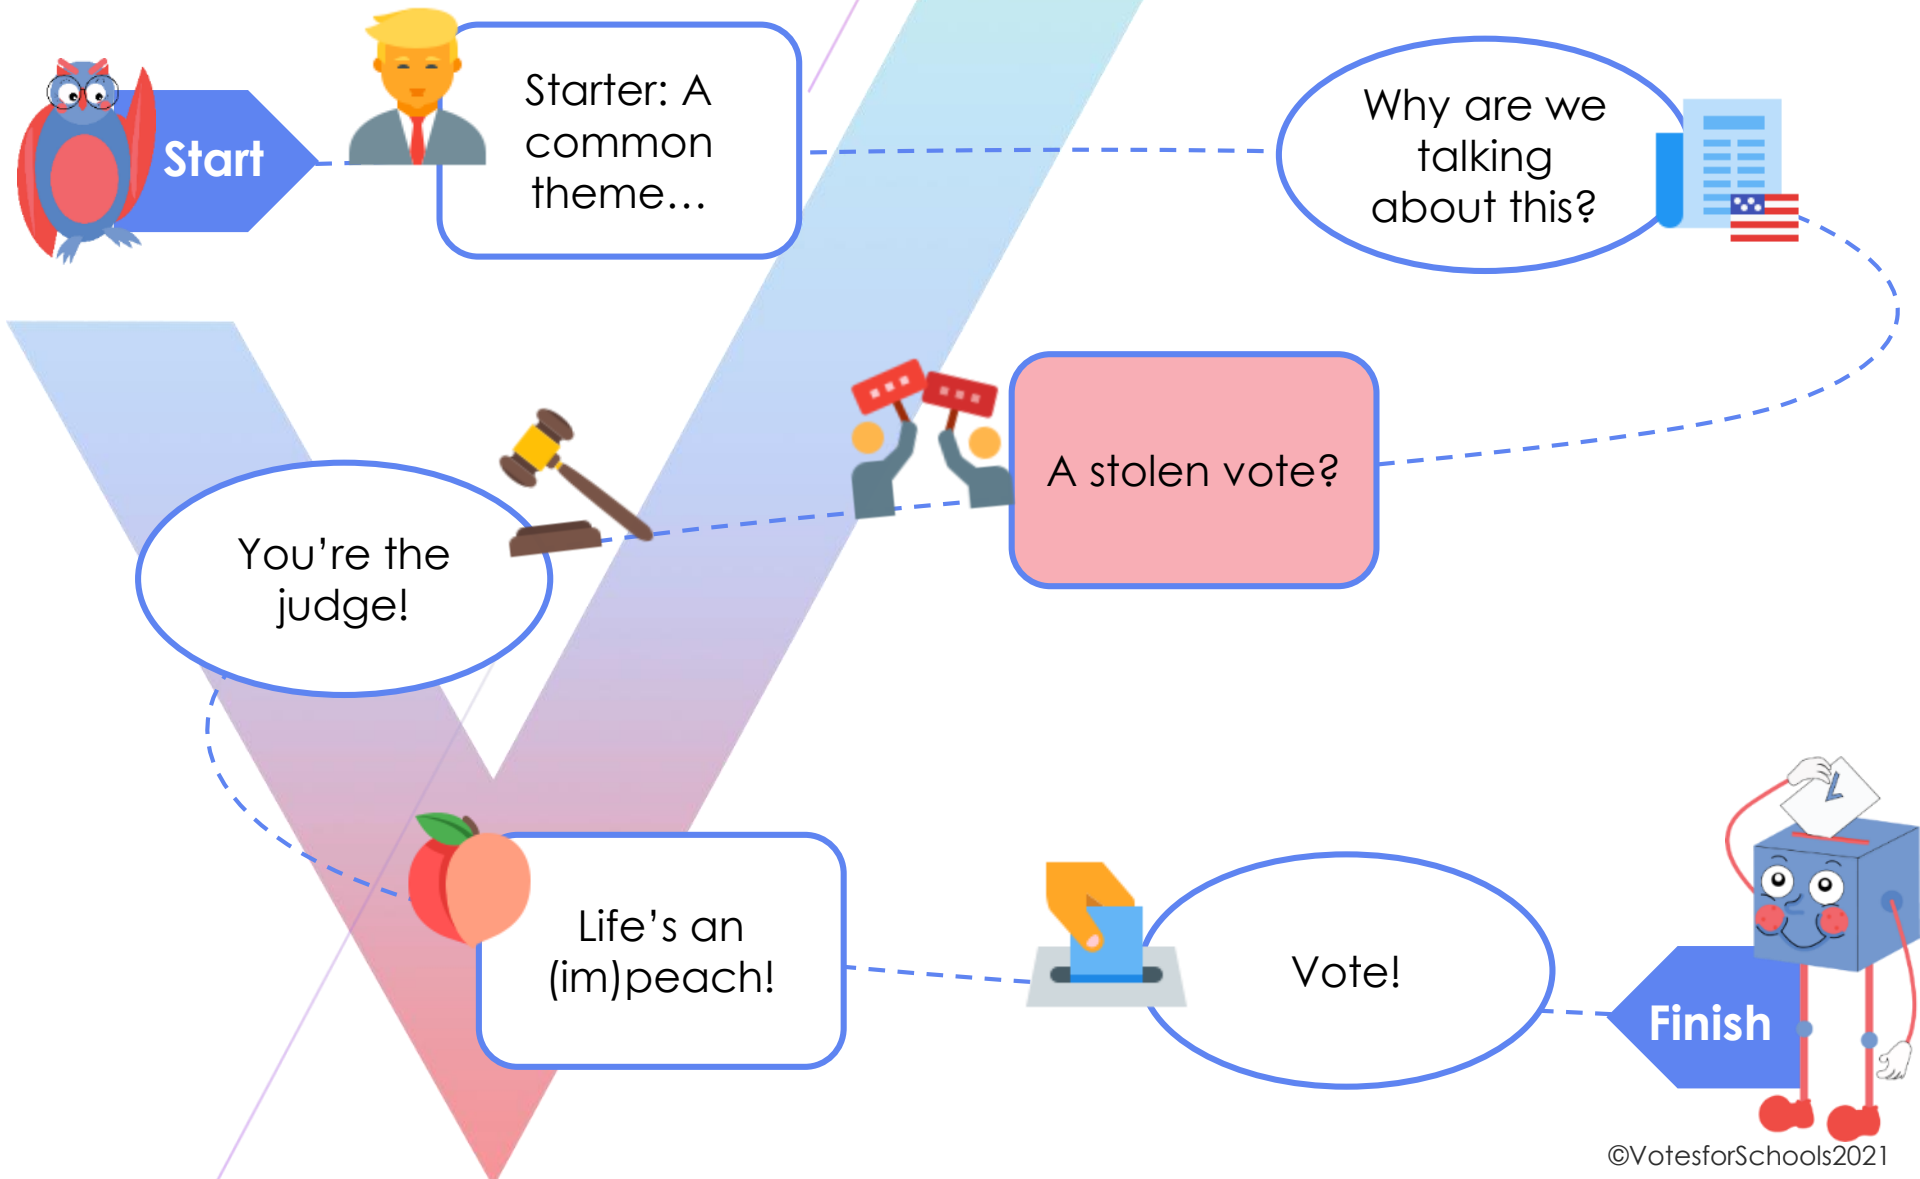

However, in the last few weeks, there have been lots of events in the news about the changing of presidents in the USA, including some dangerous protests, which led to Donald Trump being impeached.

But what exactly does impeached mean, and should it be happening to Trump? This is what you will be discussing today.

Our learning journey for this week!

A stolen vote?

People in the USA voted for Joe Biden to become President in November last year. While Donald Trump had 74 million people vote for him, Biden had more with 81 million votes!

Since then, Donald Trump has said that the election was “stolen.”

Watch (1-2 mins)

Read the quote, then click the image to find out more about what Trump has been saying about stolen votes.

Donald J. Trump
@realDonaldTrump

“We believe these people are thieves. The big city machines are corrupt. This was a stolen election. Best pollster in Britain wrote this morning that this clearly was a stolen election, that it’s impossible to imagine that Biden outran Obama in some of these states.”

This claim about election fraud is disputed

A stolen vote?

As you just heard in the video, a few weeks ago protestors gathered outside of a Government building in America called The Capitol.

The protests quickly became violent when people broke into the Capitol Building. Many Government workers had to hide from the protestors, and five people sadly died.

0:00-
5:49

Afterwards, many people said that the riots were Trump's fault, because of the things that he said in his speech.

Need more information? (6 mins)
Click the image to watch this video from BBC Newsround, explaining exactly what happened at the Capitol Building.

A stolen vote?

After the riots, members of the US Government called The House of Representatives said that Donald Trump should be impeached because they thought that he encouraged people to attack the Capitol Building.

Impeached:
If you are impeached, you are accused of “misconduct” (inappropriate behaviour).

Similar to a court, Donald Trump will “go on trial” and another part of the US Government called the Senate will decide if they think he is guilty of encouraging violence or not.

First thoughts... (1-2 mins)
Now that you know what's been happening in the US, do you think Trump will be found guilty or not? Why?

Did it encourage violence? (10-12 mins)

On the next few slides, you are going to see and hear some of the things that Donald Trump said before the riots at the Capitol Building happened. For each one, your job is to decide: did this encourage violent behaviour from protestors? Use your thumbs to show your answers, but be ready to explain why!

Remember:

You should only look at the evidence, not your opinion of Trump!

Yes, this encourages violence.

No, this doesn't encourage violence.

You're the judge!

"We won this election, and we won it by a landslide."

Landslide:
Lots of votes

As you saw earlier, Joe Biden won the election by more than 6 million votes.

Yes, this encourages violence.

No, this doesn't encourage violence.

You're the judge!

"We will stop the steal!"

The hashtag #StoptheSteal has been used many times on social media by Trump supporters who think that Joe Biden stole the presidency from Trump.

Yes, this encourages violence.

No, this doesn't encourage violence.

You're the judge!

"We will never give up. We will never concede. It doesn't happen... You don't concede when there's theft involved. Our country has had enough. We will not take it anymore."

Concede:

To let someone have something, especially when you don't want to give it to them.

Yes, this encourages violence.

No, this doesn't encourage violence.

You're the judge!

"If you don't fight ... you're not going to have a country anymore."

Yes, this encourages violence.

No, this doesn't encourage violence.

You're the judge!

"Peacefully and patriotically make your voices heard."

Patriotically:

In a way that shows that you love your country and are proud of it.

Yes, this encourages violence.

No, this doesn't encourage violence.

You're the judge!

"We are going to the Capitol."

The Capitol:

A shortened way of referring to The Capitol Building in Washington DC.

Yes, this encourages violence.

No, this doesn't encourage violence.

You're the judge!

Reflection (1-2 mins)

Think back to how you voted on those five quotes. Overall, do you think that Trump encouraged his supporters to be violent or not? Why?

He encouraged violence.

He didn't encourage violence.

Whose fault is it? (2-3 mins)

Whether you thought that he encouraged violence or not, do you think that Donald Trump should be blamed for the protestors' violence? Why/why not?

Challenge:

For Trump to be found guilty, more than two thirds of the Senate need to vote that he did encourage violence. Count up the votes so far in your class, and find out what would happen if you were the Senate.

In 250 years, Donald Trump is the third president to ever be impeached in the USA.

He has also been impeached before but, like Johnson and Clinton, he was acquitted by the Senate (found "not guilty").

Andrew Johnson

Bill Clinton

Donald Trump

At the trial, members of the US Government will vote on whether Trump is guilty. If more than 66 (out of 100) of the Senate vote yes, he will be found guilty.

If this happens, he will be the first President in history to face these consequences.

Life's an (im)peach!

True or false? (3-5 mins)

Take a look at some statements about what happens to a President who is found guilty by the Senate. For each one, vote whether you think it is true or false. Then, click to see if you're right!

This is true. However, because Trump isn't the President anymore, it won't affect him.

This is true, but it is unlikely. Even if the Senate find Trump guilty, it would be much harder to prove that he broke the law in the USA.

This is not true. While he might lose some benefits such as free security and travel money, he will not go to prison.

This is sort-of-true! If the Senate find him guilty, they can then have another vote to stop him from becoming President ever again.
