

NEW VALLEY PRIMARY SCHOOL

REMOTE LEARNING

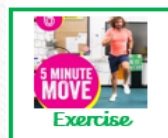

Monday 11th January

RECEPTION CHERRY CLASS

Remember to email pictures and videos to:

Cherry@newvalleyprimary.com

9:00-
9:15

9:15-
9:30

Bug Club

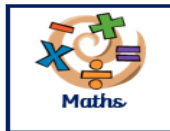

Reading

9:30-
10:00

Phonics

10:00-
11:00

Maths

Video call

Numberblocks

10:30-
11:00

Snack time

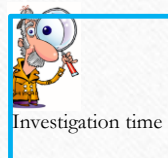

English

Alphablocks

11:00-
12:00

Investigation time

Free time

12:00-
12:45

Lunch Time

Fresh air

12:45-
1:30

Creative time

1:00-
2:00

Video call

English

2:00-
3:00

Fresh air

Mavis the magical cat

Once upon a time, there was a cat called Mavis who lived with a farmer called Marigold. Now, Mavis was just like any other cat and Marigold was just like any other farmer, except for one thing.

They were both MAGICAL!

They worked together on the farm planting flowers and vegetables and looking after Sandy, the farm dog, and Beryl, the farm chicken.

Every morning, Marigold smiled a big smile and said, "Good Morning!" Mavis stretched out her long white claws and said, "Meow!" Sandy wagged his short, scruffy tail and said, "Woof!" And Beryl fluttered her speckled brown feathers and said, "Cluck!"

One winter's evening, when the moon was as round as a giant marble, Mavis heard the strangest sound coming from Marigold's room. So, she padded up the stairs, pushed open the door and peered into the bedroom. There, standing by the bed was not Marigold the farmer but Marigold the ... witch! "Come on, Mavis," cackled Marigold. "Time to get izzy, whizzy busy!" So, they jumped on the broomstick, tapped its long handle and held on tightly as it took off down the stairs and out through the farmhouse door.

First, they zoomed to the turnip patch. "Hmmm," mumbled Marigold. "Not very plump. Time for magic, Mavis."

Later that morning, Mavis and Sandy and Beryl sat waiting in the farmhouse kitchen. At that moment, the door swung open and in walked Marigold the farmer, carrying warm boiled eggs for everyone.

"Time to check the flowers and vegetables, Mavis," she said, and off they went.

So, Mavis wiggled her ears and twitched her whiskers and ZIP BAM BOO! There in the rich brown soil were the plumpest turnips Marigold had ever seen.

"Good job," cackled Marigold and off they went.

Next, they zoomed to the fresh flower bed. "Hmmm," mumbled Marigold. "Not very colourful. Time for magic, Mavis."

So, Mavis wiggled her ears and twitched her whiskers and ZIP BAM BOO! There, swaying in the breeze, were the most colourful flowers Marigold had ever seen. "Good job," cackled Marigold and off they went.

After that, they zoomed to the corn field. "Hmmm," mumbled Marigold. "Not very ripe. Time for magic, Mavis."

So, Mavis wiggled her ears and twitched her whiskers and ZIP BAM BOO! There, standing tall, were rows of the brightest golden corn Marigold had ever seen. "Good job," cackled Marigold and off they went.

Finally, just as the morning sun was peeping over the hill, they zoomed to the chicken house. "Hmmm," mumbled Marigold. "No eggs. Time for magic, Mavis."

So, Mavis wiggled her ears and twitched her whiskers and ZIP BAM BOO! There, snuggled in the straw, was not one, not two but three of the freshest brown eggs Marigold had ever seen.

"Good job," cackled Marigold. "Time for home."

Monday

11.01.21

Phonics

RWI are now providing lessons for set 1 and set 2 phonics. They are complete lessons and are provided daily. Please do log in at 9.30am each day to learn a new sound. Each sound will be available for 24 hours. The set your child needs to focus on will be emailed to you.

Literacy

Read the story to your child, stopping after each paragraph to do the activities. Encourage your child to understand the story better by entering into the story world, moving, acting and speaking in role as the characters in the story.

Can you pretend to be some of the characters in the story? Listen while a little bit of the story is read to you. What would the character be doing? What might they say? What would their face look like?

One winter's evening, when the moon was as round as a giant marble, Mavis heard the strangest sound coming from Marigold's room. So, she padded up the stairs, pushed open the door and peered into the bedroom.

"Come on, Mavis," cackled Marigold. "Time to get izzy, whizzy busy!" So, they jumped on the broomstick, tapped its long handle and held on tightly as it took off down the stairs and out through the farmhouse door.

First, they zoomed to the turnip patch. "Hmmm," mumbled Marigold. "Not very plump. Time for magic, Mavis."

So, Mavis wiggled her ears and twitched her whiskers and ZIP BAM BOO!

Maths

Comparing Numbers to 5

Provide a set of dot plates with different arrangements of 0-5 dots. Can you find a plate with 4 dots? With more/fewer than 4 dots? Can you put the plates in order? One of the plates is missing. Can you work out which one? Please feel free to make your own or print and cut out the next few slides.

