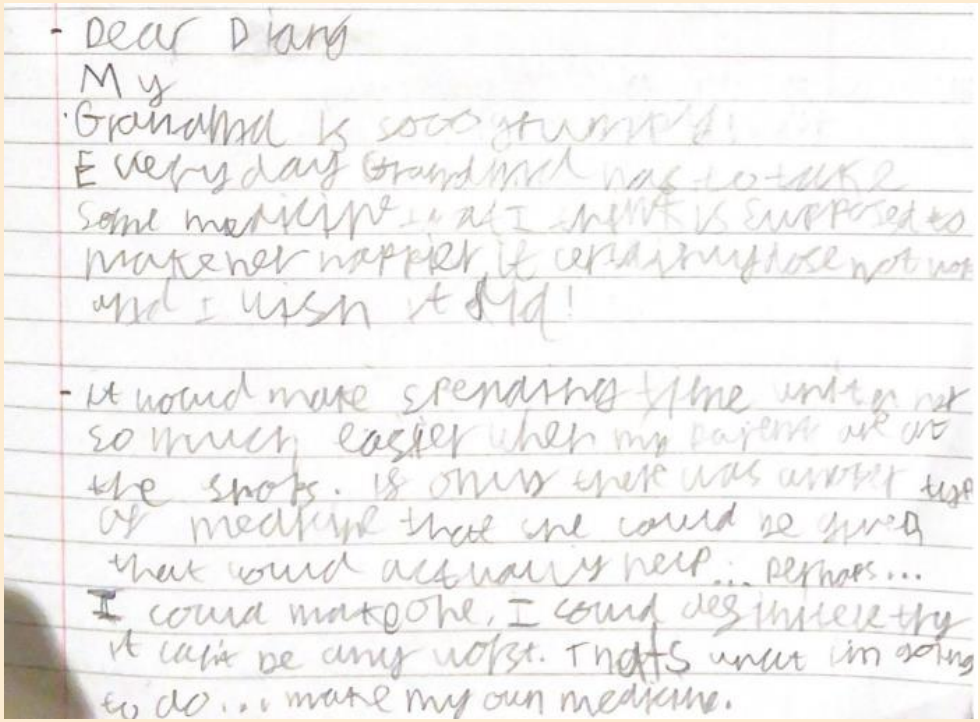
WOW WORK

Thanks for not printing this page!



- Dear Diary
My
Grandma is sooo grumpy!
Everyday Grandma has to take some medicine and I think it's supposed to make her happier it really does not work and I wish it did!

- It would make spending time with her so much easier when my parents are at the shops. Is there was another type of medicine that we could be given that could actually help... Perhaps... I could make one, I could definitely try it can't be any worse. That's what I'm going to do... make my own medicine.

Remember to try get your work in by 4pm for it to go on the WOW work page the next day!

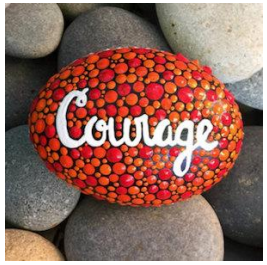
Creative Time

Can you find a small rock to paint. You could look in your garden or maybe go on a walk to look. You could paint your rock into a character, make it be a motivation quote or just paint some nice patterns on it. If you don't have any paint at home, you could still draw a design for how you would decorate a rock.

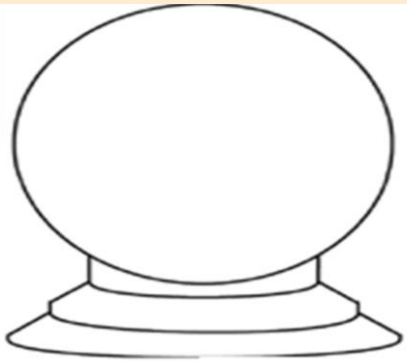


ENGLISH

LO: To predict the content of a story using objects

Take a look at these objects I have collected. They are story telling objects. What kind of story do you think we could tell with objects like this? Could you help me make up a story using these objects as inspiration? You could tell me what you came up with in our video call!

Activity: Pick at least one object to focus on and write an explanation for how you think it could be used in a story. You can do more than one object if you want!



My object: .....

"Call the fire department!" she shouted suddenly. "My stomach's on fire!"

"It's just the medicine, Grandma," George said. "It's good strong stuff."

"Fire!" the old woman yelled. "Fire in the basement! Get a bucket! Man the hoses! Do something quick!"

"Cool it, Grandma," George said. But he got a bit of a shock when he saw the smoke coming out of her mouth and out of her nostrils. Clouds of black smoke were coming out of her nose and blowing around the room.

"By golly, you really are on fire," George said.

"Of course I'm on fire!" she yelled. "I'll be burned to a crisp! I'll be fried to a frizzle! I'll be boiled like a beetroot!"

George ran into the kitchen and came back with a jug of water. "Open your mouth, Grandma!" he cried. He could hardly see her for the smoke, but he managed to pour half a jugful down her throat. A sizzling sound, the kind you get if you hold a hot frying pan under cold water, came up from deep down in Grandma's stomach. The old hag bucked and shied and snorted. She gasped and gurgled. Spouts of water came shooting out of her. And the smoke cleared away.

"The fire's out," George announced proudly. "You'll be all right now, Grandma."

"All right?" she yelled. "Who's all right? There's jacky-jumpers in my tummy! There's squigglers in my belly! There's bangers in my bottom!" She began bouncing up and down in the chair. Quite obviously, she was not very comfortable.

"You'll find it's doing you a lot of good, that medicine, Grandma," George said.

"Good?" she screamed. "Doing me good? It's killing me!"

Then she began to bulge.

She was swelling.

She was puffing up all over!

Someone was pumping her up, that's how it looked!

Was she going to explode?

Her face was turning from purple to green!

Read all of Chapter 7 'Grandma gets the medicine' here or listen to it here

For todays lesson, we are looking at explanation

Look at these pages and answer the questions.

1. Why does she say to call the fire department?
2. Why is Grandma bouncing up and down?
3. Why do you think Grandma is having this reaction to the medicine?

MATHS

Remember if you don't have a printed version of the sheet, you can just write what you would circle/tick/complete instead of having to draw it!
