Max's Morning Walk

Once upon a time, there was a black Labrador called Max who lived on the edge of a small town with his family.

Early one Spring morning, Max woke up and thought to himself, "I'd like to go for a walk and collect some sticks." So, he barked and he barked and he barked until he had woken everyone in the house!

As soon as Max had his harness fastened, his family opened the door, stepped outside and set off on their walk. The sun shone down from a bright, blue sky and birds sang up above in the trees. Max's nose twitched with excitement as he sniffed the fresh air.

First, Max walked on a path near a canal. As he was walking, he saw a brown stick. Not too big, not too small but just right! "This looks a good stick," thought Max. So, he picked it up and continued on his way.

Next, Max walked along beside the canal until he came to a stone bridge. Max walked under the bridge where he found another stick. Not too heavy, not too light but just right! "This looks a grand stick," thought Max. So, he picked it up and continued on his way.

After that, Max walked on and on until he came to a deep, dark wood. There he found another stick that was not too tickly, not too prickly. Unfortunately, it was an extremely long stick! Luckily, the path was very wide. "This looks a fun stick", thought Max so he picked it up and continued on his way.

Finally, Max arrived at the beach where noisy seagulls swooped. He was feeling so hot that he jumped into the sea to cool down. Splash! Max swam round and round and round until he found another stick, floating in the sea. Not too straight, not too bendy but just right! "This looks an unusual stick," thought Max so he grabbed it and swam to the shore.

At last, Max and his family returned home. What a very long walk I've had, thought Max and look how many sticks I found! Max yawned. He curled up in his bed, closed his eyes and fell fast asleep dreaming of his next adventure.

Literacy

Make sure you have talked through my story with your grown up, using your story map. Your teacher has put the one you did together here too.

Please have post it notes (or paper, scissors and glue/ sticky tape), a pencil and something to colour with for the PM live lesson.

Max enjoyed visiting the bridge, canal and the beach for his morning walk. Can you think of three other places he might like to visit? They could be as imaginative as you like! The more imaginative the better! Have three ideas ready for your afternoon live lesson.
