Think about the things that are happening in the music.

What is the speed?

Is it loud or quiet?

What instruments can you hear?

Most of all, think about the feeling and emotion the music creates

How do you think the performers were feeling?

How does it make you feel?

What title would you give this piece of music?

This piece of music was originally released in 1987. Its title is 'Perpetuum Mobile' and it is by the Penguin Café Orchestra.

Using this music as inspiration, come up with a piece of quality writing.

You could write...

- Setting description
- Character description
- Story
- Diary entry
- Poem
- Lyrics
- An interview with the composer
- A critical review of the music

...or anything else you think of. Enjoy expressing yourself through your writing.
