 Wake up Shake up  Exercise		 Handwriting  Spelling

Wake and shake - There are many different videos on YouTube for wake and shake or children can follow a Joe Wicks video to get them ready for the day!

Brain breaks - In school, children have enjoyed watching Jack Hartmann brain breaks but there are is a variety of different videos. Encourage children to take brain breaks or exercise breaks throughout the day!

Handwriting - children to practice writing descending letters and ensuring that they are hanging below the line.

Spellings - children can practice spellings in any way that they wish. This could be through drawing words and pictures, look, cover spell or any other way that they have practised previously.

It is World Book Day! Take a look at the activities and see how many you can complete.

Send in a video of you reading your favourite story!

George's Marvellous Medicine
This is a great book by Roald Dahl. Act out your favourite part of a book. If you don't want to act it out then you could always draw pictures or a story map. <https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/class-clips-video/english-ks1--ks2-georges-marvellous-medecine-by-roald-dahl/zry7pg8>

Michael Rosen writes great poems. They are funny and entertaining. Watch this poem and think about what you like about it. Can you write your own funny poem?

Supertato!

Read the story and think about the different characters. Create the different characters in the story and re-enact out your favourite part.

Create your own villain for your own story. What would they look like? Why are they evil?

My favourite author is Julia Donaldson. This is mainly because lots of words in her books rhyme. Do you know any of her books?

This is Julia Donaldson. She was born on the 16th September 1948 and that makes her 72 years old. She started to love poetry when her dad gave her a book called 'The Book of a Thousand Poems'. She has written more than 200 books!

Research your favourite author and write about them.

Read this story! How many rhyming words can you hear? Write them down as you hear them.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xKR2ja0RZNw>

Try using pictures
from magazines
and books
to inspire you.

Think about how you could draw
your character's
facial expressions to get their personality across.

Where and when is your story set?
Could this affect
what your character is wearing, or what they look like?

Think of details
you can use in a description
(e.g. hairstyle,
clothes,
accessories etc.).

Create your own bookmark!

You can use the templates or just go crazy with your own.

It is set in another country	Has pictures in the book.	The main character is a boy.	Animals are part of the story.
It is a sad story.	It is set in an imaginary world.	The story involves magic.	It is set in the future.
The main character is a girl.	It has a monster in the story.	It is a funny story.	It is set in this country.
Good beats evil.	It is set in the past.	Has no pictures in the book.	It is set in a school.

Can you think of a story for each section?

*For example:
The main character is a girl could be Goldilocks and the Three Bears, Snow White or Cinderella*
