SEE WITH YOUR EARS

"Poor Effy. Sent to live with her aunt and uncle in a block that won't allow dogs. What's a girl to do? She smuggles her furry friend in, of course. Keeps him under a blanket. Feeds him biscuits. Ssh Toto, quiet.

But it can't last forever. Effy needs saving. And Toto is up to the task.

Tim Crouch's immersive new play is a tender and powerful story about listening, friendship and finding hope in the darkest of places.

Wearing headphones, the audience will experience Effy's world through 3D binaural audio technology. Immerse yourself in a compelling live mix of sound and action, and discover the sound of things you never knew had sounds..."

Dear Parents

At New Valley it is our tradition at this time of year to look for relevant shows and offer pupils the opportunity to go to see a live performance at a theatre. This year we have chosen Toto Kerblammo! for Years 5 and 6, which looks to be a really exciting and different experience.

We will be travelling by train to London Bridge, leaving school at 08:40 am. and returning to school before the end of the school day.

All children will need to bring a suitable snack for before /during the play and a packed lunch. Drinks should be in plastic bottles and not fizzy. Weather permitting, we will walk along the Thames and eat looking at the view. If it is wet, we will eat inside Hayes Galleria. All children must bring a warm, waterproof coat.

We have purchased discounted tickets for this production on the 8th October, so the cost of the trip will be £9.00 per child. Payment can be made using ParentPay. Please return the reply slip below by Friday 4th October to give consent for your child to attend the trip.

Yours sincerely
